

RED WEDNESDAY

RED WEDNESDAY - 27th November 2019
Aid to the Church in Need (ACN) have asked Dioceses to make the following request:
'The world is largely silent when it comes to religious persecution, so it is up to us to defend religious freedom and shine a light on the suffering of persecuted Christians and others – especially in Syria, Iraq, Nigeria, Pakistan and China. Your prayers and action are vital. Be visible. Wear something red. Light your local landmark red. For information; prayer resources; lighting instructions; to add your event/action to ACN's #Red Wednesday Map and for a FREE fundraising pack to help displaced Christian families in Syria, Nigeria and over 100 other countries across the world please visit: <https://acnuk.org/our-campaigns/red-wednesday/>

Catholic Chaplain: Father Jonathan Rose is both Bishop's Private Secretary and Catholic Chaplain to the University of Nottingham. He is normally on campus throughout the term on Tuesdays, Fridays and Sundays. Please do schedule a time to come to meet with him informally in the Chaplaincy (Chaplaincy Faith and Support area - Ground Floor of Portland Building - close to Mouch Bar and the Portland Chapel). As Fr Jonathan is not resident on campus the best way to make contact with him is initially by email: bishop.privatesec@dioceseofnottingham.uk or by telephoning the Bishops Office: 0115 9474786 or mobile 07526 711287 (emergencies only please) or just pop into the Chaplaincy during the week and speak with Laura Hallam, the Chaplaincy Administrator, who will be happy to put you in touch with Fr Jonathan or take a message for him.

CATHOLIC CHAPLAINCY

WELCOME

I would like to welcome you all to our vibrant and active Catholic Community here at the University. We have lots of things planned both in the Catholic Chaplaincy and the Catholic Society. I am always happy to meet with students informally when I am about on campus but please feel free to book an appointment or just pop in for a coffee and a chat to the Faith and Support area of the Chaplaincy, where a warm welcome is assured! - Father Jonathan

SINGERS/MUSICIANS WANTED

We are always looking for Singers and Musicians to help augment the Liturgy on Sunday. We rehearse at 10am on a Sunday in the great hall before Mass. Message me (Joanna Callaby) on Facebook or email me (pmyjec@nottingham.ac.uk) if you are interested. Being part of the music group is a great way to get to know people and to serve God.

WEEKDAY MASS TIMES/RECONCILIATION

Tuesdays: Exposition from 4.30 pm followed by Benediction, with Mass at 5.15 pm, Portland Chapel next to Mooch Bar and the Chaplaincy, lower ground floor Portland Building.

Fridays: Rosary at 12 noon followed by Mass at 12.15 - Jubilee Campus in the Open Room, XU Yafen Building. Fish and chip lunch in Aspire Cafe after Mass.

Confessions are by appointment or before or after Mass; Tuesdays, Fridays and Sundays.

TAKING PART IN THE MASSES

If you would like to become a Reader/Server or Eucharistic Minister please get in touch with Fr Jonathan. We are always looking for new students or parishioners who would like to assist in these important ministries. Full training will be given and no experience is necessary, just a willingness to serve God and our community. If you are free to help to prepare for Mass or can spare some time after Mass packing away, this would be greatly appreciated, just pitch in and turn up, as sadly this year we have no Assistant Lay Chaplain to help him!

CATHOLIC SOCIETY

The Catholic Society is an official student affiliated Society of the Students Union. It is run and led by Catholic students from the University of Nottingham. We are an active and vibrant part of campus life and have been in existence now for over 85 years. We have a large and diverse membership. Throughout the term, we offer numerous activities for students both spiritual, social and pastoral. Watch this space in the weeks ahead or follow us on social media. Members of the Committee will also be around before and after Mass each Sunday during term time, and we are always happy to speak with you about the Society and our many activities. New members are always warmly welcomed

WELCOME - CATHSOC SECRETARY

Hello everyone,

We hope that you've had a lovely first week of classes here at Nottingham, and that you continue to enjoy your studies here this year. It was lovely to see some new faces last week, and it would be great to see even more this week when we go orienteering (aka 'St Anthony, help us, we're lost!') or at Rosary Group.

God bless - Beth French, Social Secretary

CANONISATION OF JOHN HENRY NEWMAN

We will be celebrating a special Mass in the Great Hall, at which our diocesan Bishop, Bishop Patrick McKinney will preside, with other diocesan priests concelebrating, as the whole Church joins in the joyous celebrations for the canonisation of Cardinal John Henry Newman in Rome on Sunday 13th October. Fr Jonathan has acquired a 2nd class relic for the Catholic Chaplaincy and there will be the opportunity after Mass to venerate this special relic of John Henry Newman. Prayer cards have been printed to mark this important event. The Mass will be at 11 am and after Mass Fr Jonathan invites everyone to stay on and to enjoy lunch provided by the Catholic Chaplaincy. We shall be joined by Catholic students from many of our other Universities within the Nottingham Diocese as well as Ecumenical and other invited guests.

NOVENA WITH NEWMAN

As we prepare to celebrate the canonisation of Blessed John Henry Newman on Sunday 13th October we are asked to join together by praying the 'Novena with Newman' - nine days of prayerful preparation, which began on Friday 4th October and finishes on Saturday 12th October. Watch out for the Novena prayers which will be published on the Catholic Chaplaincy social media each day. Novena booklets are downloadable at: <https://www.newmancanonisation.com/novena>
